

ATC-LARAVEL: Laravel

Course Code: ATC-LARAVEL

Duration: 4 days

Instructor-led Training (ILT) | Virtual Instructor-led Training (VILT)

OVERVIEW

Functional toolkit to design state of the art web applications. This course is a great starting point for those who want to master this framework and make a career in designing web applications with Laravel. You will learn Laravel from scratch and build your own applications.

SKILLS COVERED

- Introduction and Architecture
- How to work with databases
- Setting up Composite packages
- Adding functionality
- Performing authentications
- Deployment of application

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

- Developers who want to use Laravel to build responsive websites

PREREQUISITES

Understanding of PHP at an intermediate to advanced level and object-oriented programming experience.

MODULES

Module 1: Laravel Introduction and Architecture

Module 2: Get Started with Laravel

Module 3: Composer Packages

Module 4: Routing

Module 5: Building Views and adding Style

Module 6: Working with Data

Module 7: Authentication, Security, and Subscriptions

Module 8: Testing and Debugging Application

Module 9: Adding Advanced Features

Module 10: Deployment

END OF PAGE