

SPLK-INTRODYD: Introduction to Dashboards

Course Code: SPLK-INTRODYD

Duration: 1 day

Instructor-led Training (ILT) | Virtual Instructor-led Training (VILT)

OVERVIEW

This three-hour course is designed for power users who want to learn best practices for building dashboards in the Dashboard Studio. It focuses on dashboard creation, including prototyping, the dashboard definition, layouts types, adding visualizations, and dynamic coloring.

SKILLS COVERED

- Please refer to course overview.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Knowledge Managers

PREREQUISITES

Foundational Knowledge:

To be successful, students should have a solid understanding of the following:

- How Splunk works
- Creating search queries
- Knowledge objects
- Data structure requirements for visualizations

MODULES

Module 1: Dashboard Framework

- Describe the dashboard definition

- Compare classic and dashboard studio dashboards
- Use dashboard best practices
- Manage views
- Use dashboard best practices

Module 2: Create a Prototype

- Describe dashboard workflows
- Compare layout types
- Identify layout fields
- Add visualizations

Module 3: Use Dynamic Coloring

- Describe dynamic coloring
- Contrast visualization types
- Set global time range parameters
- Apply dynamic coloring

END OF PAGE