

SPLK-CM: Creating Maps

Course Code: SPLK-CM

Duration: 0.5 day

Instructor-led Training (ILT) | Virtual Instructor-led Training (VILT)

OVERVIEW

This three-hour course is designed for power users who want to create maps in Splunk. It focuses on the data and components required to create cluster and choropleth maps. It also shows how to format, customize and make maps interactive.

SKILLS COVERED

- Please refer to course overview.

WHO SHOULD ATTEND?

Everyone can attend.

PREREQUISITES

To be successful, students should have a solid understanding of the following:

- Introduction to Splunk
- Introduction to Dashboards
- Dynamic Dashboards

MODULES

Module 1: Cluster Maps

- Define cluster map requirements
- Use the iplocation and geostats commands
- Create a cluster map

Module 2: Choropleth Maps

- Define choropleth map requirements

- Use the geom command
- Create a choropleth map

Module 3: Customizing Maps

- Customize marker colors
- Create drilldowns
- Use tokens

END OF PAGE